

OHA ANNUAL MEETING 2023

HOSPITAL LEADERSHIP TRACK SCHEDULE

Day	Time	Presentation Name	Description	Presenters
Monday	8-9 a.m.	Trends and Opportunities in Executive Compensation	This session will provide an overview of best practices, effective processes and legal guardrails on compensation programs and benefits for executives.	James F. Flynn, JD, managing partner, Bricker & Eckler LLP Robert R. Saelinger, JD, partner, Graydon Head & Ritchey LLP Gregory L. Hoernschemeyer, senior vice president, Horan and Associates
Monday	9:45- 10:45 a.m.	2023 Trends in Board Governance	Attendees will learn about recent legal developments involving high-risk personnel issues and will be provided with pragmatic best practices to minimize or address these risks. Attendees will learn about the “hot topics” and latest trends in board governance. Strong corporate board governance is more important than ever in 2023. Top issues for board are: adapting to economic uncertainty, keeping current with AI/digitalization strategies, ensuring corporate records are in good order and preparing for more social activism.	Christina Q. Cross, Esq., of counsel, Bricker & Eckler LLP
Monday	2-3 p.m.	We’re Not a Monopoly, We Can’t Violate the Antitrust Laws, Can We?	This session will provide an overview of the antitrust laws, how those laws apply to Ohio hospitals and how to spot potential antitrust problems before they occur.	Jeremy R. Morris, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.
Monday	3:15-4:15 p.m.	Continued Headwinds Drive Strategic Decision Making	For many organizations, 2022 represented the most difficult operating environment on record due to ongoing staffing challenges, inflation, reimbursement pressure, declining investment portfolios and rising interest rates. Further, healthcare delivery continues to change as new competitors enter the market forcing organizations to evolve or risk being left behind.	Dave Morlock, managing director & group head of Health Systems M&A, Cain Brothers, a division of KeyBanc Capital Markets Kyle Hemminger, director, Cain Brothers, a division of KeyBanc Capital Markets
