

OHA ANNUAL MEETING 2023

LEGAL & COMPLIANCE TRACK SCHEDULE

Day	Time	Presentation Name	Description	Presenters
Monday	8-9 a.m.	Hot Topics in Health Care Litigation: How Your Hospital May Be Impacted	This session will examine the latest developments in health care litigation. We will discuss recent Ohio Supreme Court decisions and the resulting impact on hospital operations and risk management. We will also provide pending litigation updates on hot topics (e.g., challenges to Ohio SB 23 and 27, private payer disputes).	Victoria Flinn McCurdy, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Chester Porembski, JD, system vice president, deputy general counsel & chief risk officer, OhioHealth Jonathan T. Brollier, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.
Monday	9:45-10:45 a.m.	What's New in Medicare Exclusions: Tales from the Trenches	You know to avoid excluded providers and individuals, but how do exclusions arise? Presenters will discuss how to monitor for them, how to manage an exclusion or final adverse situation when you find it and some things to watch out for.	David Johnston, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Shannon DeBra, JD, senior counsel, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Ilah Naudasher, director, Compliance Operations, Corporate Integrity at Kettering Health Network
Monday	2-3 p.m.	Observe and Report? Understanding Physician Reporting Requirements and Discoverability of Records	This session will address physician reporting requirements and the discoverability of medical staff records. In-house and outside counsel will share perspective outlining situations where a hospital must report a practitioner to the State Medical Board of Ohio and/or the National Practitioner Data Bank and describing circumstances where records may be discoverable.	Steve Kleinman, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Rob Gerberry, JD, senior vice president & chief legal officer, Summa Health Avery Schumacher, JD, MHA, associate attorney, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.
Monday	3:15-4:15 p.m.	Rural Emergency Hospitals: The Who, What, When, Where, Why, and How	CMS recently created a new hospital type: rural emergency hospitals (REHs). REHs have characteristics of both PPS and critical access hospitals and offer a new option for rural health care. Providers contemplating an REH need to consider the financial and operational issues as well as Ohio's new hospital licensure rules.	Jennifer Nelson Carney, JD, partner, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. David Johnston, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.
Tuesday	8-9 a.m.	Banning Non-Competes? How the FTC's Proposed Rule May Affect Physician Employment	This session will help attendees better understand the FTC's proposed rule and how to align physician employment agreements with the proposed rule. The session will update accordingly if the proposed rule becomes final before the presentation date.	N. Bradford Wells, JD, of counsel, Bricker & Eckler LLP
Tuesday	9:45-10:45 a.m.	Antitrust in the Biden Administration: Managing Antitrust Risks While Achieving Strategic Growth	Attendees will gain an understanding and appreciation for the recent anti-trust developments and enforcement actions as well as their impact on governance and future strategic goals.	Joseph Wheeler, Esq., associate, Dinsmore & Shohl LLP Gregory Luib, JD, counsel, Dechert LLC
Tuesday	2-3 p.m.	Can I Get Some Privacy? HIPAA and Part 2 in 2023	This session will cover the major revisions to the HIPAA Privacy Rule expected to be issued in March 2023, which will require significant changes to the policies and practices of hospitals. Additionally, the presenters will provide an update of other recent notable HIPAA developments, as well as I provide an overview of the complex privacy landscape hospitals must navigate to remain compliant and protect their patients' information. Presenters will discuss proposed (or if issued, final) revisions to the Part 2/Substance Use Disorder rules, and help hospitals understand how to achieve compliance with both HIPAA and Part 2.	Allen Killworth, JD, partner, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Chris Bennington, JD, partner, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Elizabeth Kastner, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.
Tuesday	3:15-4:15 p.m.	Abortion in Ohio: Where Do We Stand?	This session will cover the current status of abortion law in Ohio as well as pending legislation, court cases and ballot issues.	Jennifer Nelson Carney, JD, partner, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C. Allen Killworth, JD, partner, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.