

OHA ANNUAL MEETING 2023

WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS TRACK SCHEDULE

Day	Time	Presentation Name	Description	Presenters
Monday	8-9 a.m.	Strategies to Increase the Nursing Workforce Pipeline	This session features a discussion on how to best recruit and retain diverse student nurse populations. Recognizing the need to increase capacity within nursing programs, this presentation will also touch on ways to scale nursing programs and offer a curriculum that is innovative and mindful of the critical skills future nurses will need.	M. Bridget Nettleton, PhD, RN, education workforce consultant, Davin Healthcare  David Theobald, RN, MSN, CSP, president & CEO, Davin Healthcare
Monday	9:45-10:45 a.m.	Intro to Health Careers: A Local High School Pipeline Program	Pipeline and mentoring programs are useful tools in helping students find their passion and realize their potential, especially in a rural health care environment. This session presents on a high school pipeline program developed at Fisher-Titus to engage local high school juniors and seniors in both clinical and non-clinical careers in health care.	Paige Wesolowski, MHA, director, strategic initiatives, Fisher Titus Medical Care LLC
Monday	2-3 p.m.	Supplementing Your Nursing Staff With Foreign Educated Registered Nurses	This session will discuss recruiting and obtaining work visas for foreign educated Registered Nurses, and outline a dual-track immigration program which combines temporary work visa and green card options to create a steady stream of registered nurses. We will then discuss the components of a retention program.	Kelli L. Hayes, JD, partner, Dinsmore and Shohl LLP  Dwight D. Myfelt, JD, of counsel, Dinsmore & Shohl LLP
Monday	3:15-4:15 p.m.	Workforce Issues in the Health Care Industry	Attendees will gain a greater understanding of current workforce issue around rising liability for employment and labor claims, regulatory scrutiny of employee non-competes and non-solicitation covenants, increasing remote and multi state presence; and emerging wage and hour issues including class actions.	James Petrie, JD, member of the firm, Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.  Tara A. Ashenbrand, vice president & associate general counsel, OhioHealth