2021 Health Care Leadership Awards

Health Care Leadership Awards - Descriptions

Donald R. Newkirk Award

Honors an individual who has made a significant lifetime contribution to health care in Ohio.

- Presented to an individual with multiple years of health care service who has made a significant impact in his or her hospital, the local community and across the state of Ohio.
- This is the association's highest award and bears the name of the individual who led OHA for 27 years.
- Eligibility: Nominees should be the president or CEO of an OHA member organization, either past or present.

James R. Castle Distinguished Service Award

Honors an individual whose professional attainments embody qualities of an outstanding leader or mentor for service to the health care community, or other special achievement.

- Presented to an individual who has made a significant impact in his or her hospital, local community or region of the state.
- This award commemorates James Castle, who served as OHA's president and CEO for 23 years, from 1989 through 2011.
- Eligibility: Nominees should be the president, CEO or other senior executive of an OHA member organization, either past or present.

Dr. Eli Crew Community Service Excellence Award

Recognizes an individual or organization who serves as a friend to hospitals or health systems and whose support of the health care industry reflects the public interest.

- Dr. Eli R. Crew, was one of the strongest hospital advocates of an Ohio-based organization. In 1915, he invited Ohio hospital administrators to an organizational meeting at Cedar Point in Sandusky where OHA was founded.
- Eligibility: Nominees can be hospital/health system board members or other volunteers, medical staff members, community leaders or others in the public or private sector.
